Since it established its headquarter in Egypt in 2012, Beroia has worked to employ its forty-year experience in the field of trading the building and cladding materials to be a pioneer company locally, regionally and internationally. Beroia has also succeeded in expanding and being distinctive in manufacturing porcelain and importing different sorts of it from various sources. Beroia porcelain has proved its ability to provide the best qualities of porcelain that any house needs. Beroia offers the highest kinds of porcelain, the Egyptian, the Imarati, the Indian, the Spanish, the Chinese and the Jordanian which is remarkable for solidity and pure special drawings. We provide a well-selected collection of it.
